

HONORS HARRY OWEN

Grand Master Appoints Him Lecturer and Chairman Working Committee.

SUCCESSOR TO MR. TURNER.

The Selection Meets with Hearty Approval—One of the Brightest Masons in the State, and a Popular Citizen.

Mr. Harry B. Owen, of Manchester, one of the brightest Masons in Virginia, and one of the most popular gentlemen in this section of the State, was yesterday appointed by Grand-Master J. P. Fitzgerald, of the Grand Lodge of Masons, lecturer of District No. 2, and chairman of the Committee on Work of the Grand Lodge of Virginia, and designated ex-officio Grand Lecturer of the State, to succeed the late W. E. Turner.

Mr. Owen is a member of Manchester Lodge, No. 14, of Temple Lodge, No. 9, of Richmond, of Royal Arch Chapter, No. 45, of which he was at one time high priest; of St. Andrew's Commandery, No. 12, Knights Templar, and of Acca Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, having been one of the charter members of the Shrine.

Mr. Owen was born February 14, 1851, in that portion of Chesterfield county which is now a part of the city of Manchester, and was made a Mason in Manchester Lodge, No. 14, in 1882. He was elected master in 1885, and during his term as such the lodge celebrated its centennial anniversary. While holding the office of master Mr. Owen was appointed by Grand-Master W. F. Drinkard, in December, 1886, District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 2. He was also appointed lecturer for the years 1890, 1892, 1893, and 1894 he has been on the Grand Working Committee since 1886.

As a worker and lecturer in Masonry Mr. Owen is known throughout the State, and his appointment to the important office of district lecturer will undoubtedly be hailed with delight by the fraters in his district.

BUSY MORNING FOR HIS HONOR.

A Number of Interesting Cases Heard in the Police Court.

For a month or more a most angry feud has existed between the Lanes and the Henleys, two colored families, whose homes have so far not been located.

Inquiry was made on this latter point in the Police Court yesterday morning, but nothing more definite than that Mary E. Lane, who was charged with threatening to kill Clara Henley, lives in the house across the way from Clara's residence, which latter is directly opposite Lane's house. To be more precise in locating the respective houses, Clara Henley explained that they are immediately across the street from each other. The origin of the vendetta is not quite apparent, but the fraying and engagement between the factions occurred recently, when Clara Henley sallied forth single handed and encountered the Lanes in their own castle.

Two sons-in-law of Mary Lane and one prospective son-in-law who Giles Jackson calls a son-and-a-half-in-law—testified that Clara picked up the piano-lamp, upon being ordered out of the house, and hurled it at Mary. Several days ago Clara Henley received a letter, enclosing two long, slimy, fishing-worms, which she considers a complete hoodoo. The letter wishes all sorts of evil things, and predicts that Clara will soon be changed into a dog, and will in a few days be barking. Closing the letter, which was not signed, the following is quoted: "Look out for thunder-storm for you, Clara Henley."

Clara swore to the charge that her life had been threatened by Mary Lane, whom she judged to be the author of the letter. When Mary came into court yesterday morning she made a charge of trespass and disorderly conduct against Clara, and the Justice fined them $5 and costs each.

Scott Taylor (colored) was in court charged with unlawfully striking Mr. William McCabe on the head with a piece of wood. From the testimony deduced it seems that the two were engaged as workmen in a new building on Main street, and desiring to be polite and yet not be a promoter of social equality between the white and colored races, Mr. McCabe offered Taylor a drink, but refused to drink with him at the same time or under the same roof. The negro did not approve of this, and the next day brought the matter up when they were both standing upon some joists. He threatened to throw Mr. McCabe through to the next floor, whereupon that gentleman picked up a brick to defend himself. With the brick in his hand he was struck over the head by the negro with a piece of flooring, and fell to the ground, which caught his body. Justice Crutcheff promptly sent the case on to the grand jury and recognized the witnesses.

The case of cursing and abusing S. Kanterwitz, William Hibb (colored) was fined $2.50. The fust occurred over a dog.

The barbers were discharged by the Justice yesterday with a few words of warning. John Mills, who was charged with fighting, produced William Davidson, who swore to his innocence. The Court advised the barbers to be careful in future about the standard of their balls, and to allow no more fighting in their midst; especially must they forget to wear razors and bricks at the social affairs.

THE WORK OF THE RETREAT.

An Encouraging Review of What Was Done During Last Year.

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the Retreat was held yesterday at 11 o'clock.

At the regular weekly meeting preceding this there were reported twenty-four patients in the hospital, and the cases of several charity patients were acted upon.

The president, Mrs. William A. Jenkins, read her annual report for the year ending March 1, 1896. The report gives an encouraging and satisfactory retrospect of the successful labors of the past year. Despite the "hard times" the receipts for the year were $262.61 more than last year. Many improvements have been made to the interior of the building, causing an outlay of several hundred dollars.

The treasurer's report was most satisfactory, showing the income for the year from all sources $10,177.64. This is most gratifying, especially when the $10 per week is the highest charge for a pay patient, and there were only twenty-five out of 200 who paid that amount, and only one of that number who remained as long as five weeks, and some only a few days. Thus it will be seen that many were benefited by our small charges of from 5 to 15 per week, $15 being the lowest per month to those who cannot pay more. Two thousand one hundred and six days of free treatment were given to forty-three patients.

The Board of Managers gratefully appreciate the increasing interest that the physicians of the city are taking in the Retreat, and they cordially and earnestly solicit their patronage. It is this patronage which helps us to do more than anything else to minister to the needy and afflicted.

The ladies expressed their pleasure that the beloved president has been able to so faithfully perform the duties of her position, although she has been confined several times with what seemed to be a serious illness.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. William A. Jenkins, president; Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, first vice-president; Mrs. H. C. Taylor, second vice-president; Mrs. A. S. Lee, third vice-president; Mrs. I. M. Rosenbaum, fourth vice-president; Mrs. D. W. Mosley, fifth vice-president; Mrs. F. H. Rahm, sixth vice-president; Miss Jack Temple, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Pleasant, assistant secretary; Mrs. K. V. Burrows, second assistant secretary.

BUILD THE TABERNACLE AT ONCE.

Work to Commence Next Monday—The New Church Building.

The Building Committee of the Grace-Street Baptist church have determined to erect their tabernacle on the lot adjacent to Dr. Hatcher's residence, on west Grace street. The lot is the property of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, and is furnished to the church free of rent for the house which the congregation will occupy until they can erect their new church on the old site. The structure will be a plain, framed building, 44 feet by 128 feet in length. It has not yet been given out to contract, and, as portions of the material will be given, it is thought that the expense of its erection will be quite light. It is expected that work will be begun on the tabernacle next Monday, with the understanding that it will be ready for use by the last Sunday in the month.

Thus far nothing has been done towards the erection of the church building proper, as the church feels that its first duty is to secure temporary quarters. Dr. Hatcher was asked if there was any likelihood that the church would secure the lot in the rear of the church-plot, at the corner of Foushee and Grace streets, and, in reply, said his people did have a desire at first to secure the lot, and some inquiry was made as to the terms on which it could be purchased. It was found that the price asked was entirely beyond the price which the committee would pay for it, and at a meeting of the Building Committee on Wednesday night it was determined to build on the old lot, though there may be some important changes in the plan of the building.

Dr. Hatcher having received, through Dr. Cooper, an invitation to worship with the First Baptist church on next Sunday night, had arranged to do so. He and his good congregation will pay a visit to the old mother church on that occasion, and it will, of course, be a time of unusual interest to both churches.

PREPARING THEM TO TEACH.

Rev. Mr. Daugherty Proposes to Send Out Missionaries—The New Church.

Rev. John W. Daugherty, when seen late yesterday afternoon by a Dispatch reporter, said that he had kept himself within the house all day, and was taking a much-needed rest. The public interest in the Fulton-church trouble, he said, would probably cease now, as it had been one of those "wonders," which, according to the saying, lasted nine days, and the time expired last night. He said he and his people intended to go on with the work started, and that as soon as some persons could be instructed they would be sent out to teach the Gospel.

"You mean in this city?" he was asked. "Both in this city and out of it," replied the pastor.

"Your missionaries will preach the doctrine of sanctification," as believed by you and your followers?" the reporter asked.

"They will preach the Gospel, which cannot be done without that," Mr. Daugherty said.

Work upon the new church had not been commenced yesterday, and the pastor said he did not know why. He was going to leave today to attend to that part of the work. The building, he said, would be very simple in design, and ornamentation and comfort would not be considered in its construction. It was to be merely a house of worship—a place where the Gospel could be taught.

DEAF, DUMB, AND BLIND BOARD.

To Meet in Stanton Monday, and Forally Receive the Property.

The New Board of Visitors to the Deaf, Dumb, and Blind Institution, at Stanton, composed of Hon. John E. Massey, Superintendent of Public Instruction, ex-officio; Senator George A. Muesbach, of Gloucester; General George J. Hundley, of Amelia; Hon. Addison Maupin, of Henrico; ex-Judge J. K. Edmundson, of Rockbridge, and Mr. R. S. Turk, of Stanton, will meet Monday at 10 o'clock in the city hall, to receive the property from the Executive Committee of the old board.

It is likely that the reorganization of the institution will be deferred until the next meeting.

To Develop Virginia Gold-Fields.

Mr. W. P. De Saussure, counsel for the Gold-Belt Chartered Company, returned Wednesday night from New York, where he had been to attend a business meeting of the corporation. More than three-fifths of the stock offered has been sold. He has met Monday at 10 o'clock, at the residence of Hon. John P. Proctor, president of the United States Civil-Service Commission, will probably accept the position of consulting geologist of the company. He is well informed on the gold-fields of Virginia, and he speaks in terms of highest praise of the gold deposits in Buckingham.
